

4 Torquay Street Sheffield TAS

3 1 1

Have you ever pictured yourself in a character home, surrounded by country and access to breathtaking views of Mount Roland? In a town where snow settles in winter and the sun warms your skin in Summer?

4 Torquay Street in the sweet town of Sheffield will be the forever home you've dreamt of. Located in a quiet dead end street within easy walking distance to the town center, this gorgeous home will tick a lot of boxes.

Outside the home, the gardens are beautifully established, the grass is green, and federation style characteristics are found at every turn. The large block (approx. 1,700m²) which is on 2 titles, provides a space for children to make memories after picking from the fruit and veggie trees, and for the family pets to adventure.
