Do morning strolls to the beach, bike rides along the waterfront, and dinner in the city with only a short drive home sound appealing to you? What about space to entertain and a kitchen large enough to cater for your guests? Perhaps a fully fenced yard with room for the kiddies and pets to play? 85 George Street in Devonport is the ultimate lifestyle home, located in a sought-after area and suitable for families at almost all stages of life.

Step foot in the entrance of the home, and feel welcomed by the open, sunny area that is the living room, temperature controlled by the Fujitsu heat pump, and with well cared for dark carpet.

The connecting open plan kitchen provides a feeling of warmth and modern luxury. Light floor boards mixed with all the right tones and an abundance of space - all the
