

7 Tasman Place Devonport TAS

2 1 1

Full of potential and conveniently located, 7 Tasman Place will have you falling in love from the moment you step foot down the pathway to the homely cottage. While only a little work may need to be done to modernize the home, and some windows already replaced with aluminum frames, a splash of paint and new flooring will make a large difference.

The living room is full of sun with a gas heater installed within the original mantel piece - with a little makeover this would make a lovely feature for the space. A small dining area connects to the updated kitchen, which is full of neutral tones and colours, as well as providing a good amount of storage space and sunlight. The gas cooking will make those Sunday morning omelets that little bit better!

The master bedroom is of good size and boasts a small
